Camille Cusumano and Tango Dance Way to Squaw Valley Institute Event

Olympic Valley, Calif. – Squaw Valley Institute brings Camille Cusumano, author of the book, Tango, An Argentine Love Story, to the Cedar House Sport Hotel in Truckee for a special evening of dance and discussion of her book on Wednesday, August 4 at 7:00 PM. A no-host bar opens at 6:00 PM. Tickets are $20 for Institute members, and $25 for non-members. Seating is limited, so advance purchase of tickets is highly recommended.

In addition to demonstrating the art of the tango, Cusumano, who has spent a total of 3.5 years in Argentina, will share her insights into the Buenos Aires writing community and the pros and cons of quitting your day job to live in another hemisphere. In addition to her recent book, Cusumano has writing for a number of publications. She was an editor at VIA Magazine, the West's award-winning travel publication, for 17 years. Her work has appeared in many publications, including Islands, Country Living, the San Francisco Chronicle, North American Review, Los Angeles Times, Christian Science Monitor, The New York Times, Yoga Journal, Vegetarian Times, and The Washington Post.

The Cedar House is located at 10908 Brockway Road in Truckee.
