Be part of the conversation! Join the Squaw Valley Institute community of members and enjoy a year of compelling, interesting and relevant programming that cannot be found anywhere else in the North Tahoe Region. The Squaw Valley Institute’s newly adopted tag line, “Inspiring Uncommon Conversations,” underscores our intention to create an incubator for critical thought – to provide programming that inspires thoughtful conversations, changes paradigms and challenges all who attend to imagine possibilities.

The Squaw Valley Institute is a nonprofit, member supported speaker’s forum.
